

Request for Proposals Program Development Strategy

Overview

America's Service Commissions (ASC) is the national association of the 52 governor-appointed state service commissions. Combined, state service commissions administer 75% of the nation's AmeriCorps State and National funding in addition to promoting national service and volunteering in their respective states. The mission of ASC is to lead and elevate the state service network.

ASC is seeking a provider to facilitate a cohort of state service commissions to create a plan for program development and implementation strategies.

Service to be Provided

The selected provider will lead and support participating state service commissions through a live web-based cohort. The provider will support the cohort in developing a strategy and plan for program development in their respective state or territory.

The provider should have a background and experience in training and coaching on topics related to AmeriCorps and volunteer engagement programs, understanding grant making strategies, diversity, equity, and inclusion, experience delivering web-based trainings, excellent customer service, communication skills, and the ability to work independently.

The provider may propose utilizing their own webinar technology or request ASC to facilitate webinar technology using the Zoom platform.
